

GOMPERS HELPING PLAN
FOR UNION OF TEACHERS

Labor Leader Will Meet School
Workers To-Day in Conference on Proposed Organization.

Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, will answer the questions of New York school teachers to-day on the plan to affiliate their proposed union with the federation. A conference will be held in De Witt Clinton High School at 4 P. M.

Dr. Henry B. Linville, President of the Teachers' League, said yesterday: "The league has voted for the affiliation of the Teachers' Union with the federation. While nothing definite will be done at the conference to-morrow, I look to see real action taken at the meeting next Friday night in Washington Irving High School."

The tyrannical attitude of the educational authorities has served to crush the spirit of the teachers, who need a union organization to break down the petty system of sharp business practices which exploits them because it has the chance. The teachers need a union to compel the adoption of humane treatment by bullying principals and tyrannical superintendents.

ELKS MAY GO HORNLESS.

Sundays Members Would Abolish the Trenton Club Bar.

TRENTON, N. J., March 6.—As a result of the Billy Sunday campaign members of the Elks may soon be called upon to determine whether liquor shall continue to be sold in the clubhouse. A split is threatened.

Quartermaster Gen. C. Edward Murray, David C. Griffith and several other men who "hit the trail" in the recent revival, who are also influential members of Trenton Lodge No. 105, are back of the new movement. It is said. The ground is that the clubhouse bar be abolished.

Obesity Reducing Exercises for Women
Presented in a Series of Handy Charts

CHART NO. 1 Arranged by
Pauline Furlong. OBESITY REDUCTION
LEG SWINGING EXERCISE FOR BEGINNERS
AIDS REDUCTION OF HIPS AND THIGHS

FIRST MOVEMENT.—Take position lying on left side, legs extended and together, left arm outstretched full length under head.

SECOND MOVEMENT.—Swing right leg sharply over left leg and bring it up as far as it will reach. Return to original starting position and relax. Repeat movement five times with right leg. Relax for a few seconds after each swing.

THIRD MOVEMENT.—Turn body over until you are resting on right side, right arm under head, reversing position taken in first movement.

FOURTH MOVEMENT.—Swing left leg sharply over right, as you performed exercise in second movement. Relax as before between swings and repeat exercise five times.

Do not allow either leg to leave floor as you bring it over other one. Movement should be swift glide rather than a jerk.

Send two cent stamp to Miss Furlong, Evening World, No. 65 Park Road, N. Y. City, for each and every back number of charts desired, but order paper of your newspaper in advance, to insure obtaining complete set. Letters not over 250 words in length. Miss Furlong will answer on days alternating between publication of charts, besides writing articles bearing on obesity reduction.

Percy Grainger,
Hofmann, and Paderewski

By Sylvester Rawling.

PERCY GRAINGER, the Australian pianist, put another feather in his cap yesterday afternoon at Carnegie Hall. As soloist at the Philharmonic Society's Liszt-Tschakowsky concert, his playing in Liszt's "Hungarian Fantasy" for piano and orchestra was rarely brilliant. The audience, which was very large, fairly rose to him, recalling him several times. Mr. Strinsky and his orchestra were on their mettle, too. They played Liszt's symphonic poems "Orpheus" and "The Battle of the Huns" with fine fervor and skill. We must thank Mr. Strinsky for exploiting Liszt, much neglected nowadays; but he would better not give us that "Battle of the Huns" too frequently. For the last, there was that great, plaintive, moving, bitter-sweet "Patetique" symphony of Tschakowsky's, which splendidly played, with irresistible appeal.

Geraldine Farrar suddenly fell hoarse. There had to be a quick change of bill from "Carmen" to "Rigoletto" for the matinee, and the people who had paid $50 a seat to speculate to see Miss Farrar were sore. The substitution was made easy by the graciousness of Maria Barrington, who, after singing in "La Sonnambula" on Friday night, consented to sing "Gilda". Then, too, Mr. De Luca, who was to sing in "Aida" on Saturday night, willingly assumed the part of Rigoletto, while Mr. Amato sang Amonaro in his place. As Miss Farrar's indisposition continues, "Mme. Sans Gene" cannot be presented to-night. Instead, there will be the double bill of "Goyescas" and "Cavalleria".

DAMROSCH IN PLAN FOR SUMMER MUSIC RESORT

Big Auditorium Proposed in North
Carolina, Where His Orchestra
Will Appear.

PHILADELPHIA, March 5.—Backed by Fairfax Harrison, President of the Southern Railway; Walter Damrosch, conductor of the New York Symphony Orchestra and other prominent men, a summer resort for music lovers will be established on Aug. 15 at Black Mountain, N. C., fourteen miles from Asheville. Complete plans were formed at a meeting last week at Black Mountain. A huge stone and concrete auditorium, seating over 3,000 people, will be constructed at once at a cost of $200,000 by the company formed by Mr. Harrison and others under the name of the National Festival Chorus Society.

The Damrosch orchestra and many fine singers and actors will be there all summer, beginning Aug. 15 of this year.

ADMITS KILLING, BUT SAYS IT WAS IN DUEL

Magiano Asserts, Too, Opponent
Fired Treacherously Before
He Shot Him Down.

Giuseppe Magiano, a young book-binder of No. 230 East One Hundred and Seventeenth Street, arrested last night for the murder of Andrew Di Palzio, twenty-two, of No. 213 East One Hundred and Sixth Street, at One Hundred and Tenth Street and Second Avenue, on Tuesday night, admitted the killing, but added:

"I had trouble with him and he threatened to kill me. When I asked him to give me a chance he offered to fight a duel. I accepted. Before we reached the spot where it was to have taken place he fired two shots at me and missed. Then I shot him through the right eye. He dropped dead."

"TIZ" FOR FEET

For Tired Feet, Sore Feet, Tender, Aching, Swollen Calloused Feet and Painful Corns

Just take off your shoes and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath. When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions. There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture. Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel.—Adv.
